The Austrians suffered severe losses and in retiring burned their depots and engaged in pillage. British aviators successfully bombed numerous enemy depots in the Struma valley."

The rain prevented flying at night."

Break up German Patrol.
With the American Forces on the Marne, July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—A large German patrol which attempted to raid the American trenches on the Marne front this morning was broken up and left in confusion. The Germans left several machine guns behind and the Americans in establishing the identification of new German units.

The weather yesterday and today was cloudy, showery and windy and did not permit of much airplane observation. The artillery activity continues below normal. In recognition of the valiant services of the American troops when they stopped the German rush on Paris in the second battle of the Marne, capturing Bois de Belleau, routing the German machine gun nests and establishing themselves in commanding positions on the Marne sector the French authorities have officially changed the name Bois de Belleau to Bois de la Brigade de Marne and have ordered all maps changed accordingly.

STRENGTH OF GERMAN FLEETS IS UNCERTAIN

Officials Unable to Form Accurate Estimate of Enemy Naval Forces.

Washington, July 11.—Allied and American naval officials are unable to form an accurate estimate of present strength of the German battle fleets, it was said today by Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations. Not only are reports as to what Germany has built or is building conflicting but every effort to secure positive information in regard to the whereabouts and conditions of the Russian fleet in the Black and Baltic seas has failed.

Naval officials are particularly interested in the dreadnaughts and battle cruisers Germany may have secured by seizure of the Russian fleets. At least eight modern battle ships were in the Baltic Black seas and four battle cruisers were under construction at points in the gulf of Finland when the Russian collapse came.

It is estimated if Germany has obtained all Russian war craft and put them in fighting condition she has been able to increase the strength of her high seas fleet 25 per cent. Admiral Benson was positive however, of ability of the allied fleets to deal with the enemy should he venture out.

The chief of operations said that information as to the Russian Baltic fleet was unreliable. He was particularly interested in the four battle cruisers which were scheduled for completion in the winter of 1917, but which undoubtedly were greatly delayed by the Russian collapse. The Germans are now in control of the ports where the ships were laid down. Some reports say these and other Russian craft have been taken over and fitted for action while others declare many of the vessels which were in commission were destroyed by their crews to prevent their falling into German hands.

BAKER INSPECTS MUNITION PLANT
CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 11.—"We may mobilize great armies and send them across the submarine-infested seas to the battle fronts, but unless we can stand behind them and send them the product of our labor, their courage and valor will be in vain," said Newton G. Baker, secretary of war in an address today before 18,000 workmen at the explosives plant at Nitro, W. Va., near here.

The secretary, accompanied by Major General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, inspected the entire plant, including the three thousand individual buildings which have been erected in record time by a force of 19,000 workers. Other members of the secretary's party were D. C. Jackson, munitions plant supervisor, Major Swing, aide to General March and Mr. Hays, secretary to Mr. Baker.

At the close of the inspection trip, Secretary Baker addressed the workmen late today. He congratulated the men who made possible the construction of the plant in so short a time and declared that the workers engaged in this work are contributing as much to the success of the nation's arms as are the soldiers in France.

Almost without loss we took Syzran (70 miles south of Simbirsk) and Bugulma (130 miles northwest of Ufa). The Czech-Slovaks and white guards fled in disorder in the direction of Samara. We are reaching Stavropol (in Ciscaucasia) Yaroslavl, (160 miles northeast of Moscow) and Rybinsk (5 miles northwest of Yaroslavl)."

"An armed train has violently shelled towns occupied by the white guard who are fleeing in a panic over the river Volga. Detachments fled to Rybinsk where they tried to raise a mutiny. Measures have been taken against them."

"Eastern sector: Czech-Slovaks after occupying Tchesardinsk now are retreating before a counter-offensive of council's troops."

"Our commander-in-chief of the Uralo-Siberian front Birzin, reports that Czech-Slovak troops commanded by Russian officers have committed many atrocities upon the personnel of the West Siberian railway."

BUSCHS BOUGHT GERMAN WAR BONDS
St. Louis Multi-Millionaires Said to Have Purchased at Least a Million Dollars' Worth.

New York, July 11.—The Busch family of St. Louis bought at least $1,000,000 worth of the German war bonds which the government believes were sold in this country for propaganda and for purchase of the New York Evening Mail and other newspapers, according to a statement issued tonight by Alfred L. Becker, deputy states attorney general. Mr. Becker added that probably more than $100,000,000 worth of the bonds had been sold in the United States.

Mr. Becker emphasized that while the United States was still neutral the German government was using a cent of expense to itself established a fund to seduce part of the American press with good American gold, exchanged for mere scraps of paper.

Many Americans, he said, invested in German bonds before this country went to war in the same manner that they are now buying liberty bonds, thinking that the money was to be used legitimately for the purchase of munitions and supplies, and not suspecting that their dollars were to be used against our country. The Adolphus Busch estate, A. A. Busch and Mrs. Lillie Busch were among the subscribers in America to the German war loans, he declared, adding that when Mrs. Busch was arrested recently by government agents on her arrival in this country she declared any knowledge of the alleged purchase of the Evening Mail.

Captain David A. Henks, who was dismissed from the United States army by court martial for wishing to resign after being sent to France and who was sentenced to 25 years at Fort Leavenworth, was one of his army pay to buy German bonds, according to Mr. Becker.

APPROVAL OF WIRE RESOLUTION CONCEDED

Senate Expected to Adopt House Resolution Today Empowering Wilson to Acquire Systems.

Washington, July 11.—Adoption tomorrow by the senate of the house resolution empowering the president to acquire telegraph, telephone, cable and radio systems and a summer vacation for congress, with national wartime prohibition legislation postponed until after the recess, was the program framed today by congressional leaders.

Senate debate on the administration wire control resolution was begun today after the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural appropriation bill with its prohibition amendment had been laid aside temporarily. With a vote expected tomorrow or not later than Saturday and approval of the resolution without amendment almost universally is conceded. Leaders of the senate and house renewed negotiations to postpone the prohibition issue and carry out original plans for a recess adjournment until about August 12.

Prohibition advocates assented to temporary displacement of the agricultural measure because the wire control resolution is regarded by the administration as an urgent war necessity. The agricultural bill however, was kept in position to be called up immediately after disposal of the wire legislation either before or after a recess. If prohibition managers finally insist on immediate disposition of the prohibition legislation leaders believe a vote might be reached early next week and congress then start on its vacation. The wire control resolution was debated in the senate virtually all day. Opponents emphasized lack of information regarding its military necessity and insisted that further hearings are necessary before intelligent action can be taken.

Pressing the resolution on the ground that President Wilson regards its grant of authority as a military necessity, Senator Smith and Senator Underwood of Alabama, said no present exigency is known to require its use but it is to arm the president with power if need for it should arise.

Opposition came principally from Republicans. Senator Smith of Michigan, vehemently declared government control of communication systems was a step toward Socialism, with dangers of press censorship while Senator Kellogg of Minnesota who spoke at length declared congress is asked to act without opportunity for intelligent information or reason for its enactment. Senators Borah of Idaho, and Harding of Ohio, also demanded information regarding its necessity. Amendments proposing to except telephone systems and telegraph wire released by press associations from the resolutions operation were introduced by Senator Watson of Indiana, Republican.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

French pressure along the line from the Marne to the Aisne, which began two weeks ago as a series of local attacks has begun to yield results which are appreciable when viewed on the map. The town of Corcy, east of the Retz Forest has been taken from the Germans and strong positions in the vicinity have been captured by the slow methodical advance that has been the source of much annoyance to the enemy for several days.

As a result of the assaults made by the French from Ambly, south of the Aisne, to the hills south of Corcy, their line has been straightened and advanced to high ground which lends itself to defensive operations and gives the French good observation points from which they can see what is going on behind the German lines.

There has been some reason for believing that when the Germans resume their offensive on the western front they will attempt to break thru between the Marne and Aisne in a dash straight to Paris. For this reason on the operations which the French have carried out assume importance.

South of Corcy the German line extends slightly to the westward but it curves sharply eastward just before it reaches the Aisne river, northwest of Chaumont Thierry. From the Chaumont southward to the Marne, American forces have been improving their positions in recent days and now have a strong line of positions running northward from Hill 204 west of Chateau Thierry to the village of Corcy.

On the British front the Australians have been in action once more penetrating German positions and capturing prisoners. On the rest of the lines held by the British there have been the usual artillery duels and patrol engagements. French and Italian detachments are steadily pushing the western slopes of the mountains that parallel the coast of Albania. They are reported north of the important town of Berat and have moved ahead in the hill country to the east. Vienna admits the allied success in this quarter.

In the northern sectors of the front the Italian troops, Austrian units which approached the Italian positions have been driven back.

Bolshevik forces have engaged in battles with the Czech-Slovaks in European Russia and an official statement issued at Moscow claims that victories have been won at various points. The fighting appears to have been hardest in the region to the east and southeast of Petrograd, which may indicate that the Czech-Slovaks have advanced from the Urals, where they have been reported active for some weeks.

A Peking despatch states that the Czech-Slovaks are in virtual control of all western Siberia. Over vast stretches of this country they have triumphed over the Bolsheviks. The overthrow of the Bolsheviks at Irkutsk has been confirmed.

An official statement from Berlin says that five of a squadron of six American airplanes which started out with the intention of bombing the city of Cologne fell into the hands of the Germans.

Sir George Cave, British home secretary has announced in the House of Commons that the British government will apply to the courts for an order to wind up the business of enemy banks and make it impossible for an enemy bank to be opened in England. In addition every male enemy alien over eighteen years of age will be immediately interned. Premier Lloyd George in speaking on the subject has said that the work will be carried out "vigorously, rigorously and with firmness."

"BUM WAGES—BUM WORK" I. W. W. IDEA
CHICAGO, Ill., July 11.—"The psychology of sabotage or unconscious sabotage" was the title of a short I. W. W. lecture delivered by James Rowan, one of the defendants in the I. W. W. conspiracy that he had frequently given the talk in spreading I. W. W. propaganda.

"Bum wages—bum work" was the principle of unconscious sabotage according to Rowan. He declared that sabotage is a natural result of mistreatment according to workers.

"If you pay $10 for a suit of clothes you get a poor suit," he said. "If you pay a low price for labor or mistreat your men they will give you poor and unwilling work in return. Sabotage will exist because the one is a perfectly natural outgrowth of the other."

Rowan explained experiences in the state of Washington telling in particular of being striped and beaten after he had been taken six miles out of Seattle and left to tramp the ties to some other city.

HOSPITAL WORKERS THREATEN STRIKE
CHICAGO, July 11.—Two hundred and seventy employees of the Chicago State Hospital for the Insane sent a petition to Governor Lowden today for an increase in salary to meet the increase in the cost of living. They threatened to strike unless their demands are granted.

NEW YORK PAYS LAST TRIBUTE

MAJOR MITCHELL

Many Accompany the Body to Final Resting Place

NEW YORK, July 11.—Major John Parrot Mitchell, soldier, statesman and former mayor of New York was laid to rest today in Woodlawn Cemetery here at the presence of five thousand citizens after one of the most remarkable and impressive funerals ever held.

The obsequies were not only characterized by presence of men prominent in world affairs, including former President Roosevelt, Joseph P. Tumulty, representing President Wilson, envoys from the war and navy departments and official representatives of England, France, Italy, Japan, Cuba and Persia, but eighteen American aviators in battle formation as a token of respect to their dead comrade in arms, hovered over the funeral train as it moved slowly up Fifth avenue to St. Patrick's Cathedral and thence to the cemetery.

Thousands of American beauty roses from gardens of Mrs. Robert Bacon, wife of the former American ambassador to France were dropped by airmen into the streets, on the house tops and at the grave as the aviator's body was lowered into its final resting place. Three thousand lilies sent by the former mayor's official family carpeted the spot. Prayers for the dead, three volleys fired by American infantrymen, the sounding of "taps" by a regular army bugler from Governor's Island and the simple service at the grave was over.

The funeral procession which had left City Hall where the body had lain in state at 9 a. m., arrived at the cemetery at 1:30 p. m. Thousands of citizens to whom the remarkable career of New York's youngest mayor had been an inspiration, lined the side walks. Thousands viewed the funeral from roofs and windows of public buildings.

The city's church bells tolled and "Quiesce" pealed. Soldiers, sailors, policemen, firemen, Red Cross nurses, distinguished civilians, notable men representing the allied and other nations, 10,000 in all composed the cortege.

Major Mitchell's horse shrouded in black with boots reversed in the stirrups and bearing also his reversed sword followed the gun carriage which bore the casket draped with the Stars and Stripes. Much of the city's business was suspended. All exchanges and many commercial houses were closed for an hour and when the body was being lowered into the grave, street and subway cars stopped for one minute.

At the cathedral the beautiful "die chitir" mass of requiem, stirred the great throng of mourners and tears were in the eyes of many as the great organ pealed "The Star Spangled Banner," the close of the services.

Had Courage to Fight.
"I am glad that John took up his fight for preparedness," Mrs. James Mitchell is quoted by her friends as saying after leaving her son's grave.

"I am glad that he had the courage to fight against those who opposed him in it. I am proud that he had the courage to go in to the most dangerous branch of the service. I know that he died bravely and, as his mother, I must try to live that way."

MUST CUT DOWN NUMBER OF TRUNKS
WASHINGTON, July 11.—Conversion of baggage cars into diners for troop trains has caused such a shortage of cars for ordinary use that the war industries board today called upon dry goods wholesalers to cut down the number of trunks carried by traveling salesmen. Reduction of samples and use of photographs and lithographs is suggested.

There are only 9,700 baggage cars in the country and last year 24,000,000 sample trunks constituted thirty per cent of the baggage carried free by the railroads.

Honor Francis by flying the French and American flags Sunday—Bastille Day.

Acquire the Thrift Stamp habit now, it will do you good all the balance of your days.

Every thrifterman has pledged himself to save all the grain from the straw this year. As a consequence they claim that the grain in Kansas will be nearly 15 per cent.

An exchange says "waste prevents haste in winning the war."

There is only two months until the primary at which nominations for officers, for both parties, are to be held. Get in the game if you want a place.

Only a few years ago positions in the state institutions in this city were sought by many. Today the authorities are becoming alarmed on account of the scarcity of help. The governor is calling the attention of the people to the serious situation. He says it avails us nothing to win a battle for humanity abroad unless we maintain the obligations to humanity imposed on us at home.

Congress is preparing a law that will soon tax everything save the bare necessities if life, in accordance with suggestions made by the treasury department. The bill is re-arranging and will add to the burdens of every family, but the government evidently needs the money and there will be only a mild grumbling. As Americans are determined to see the war thru to a successful ending. We might be worse off.

The Austrian people are not willing to stand for a German generalissimo over their army. The government has been forced to issue a statement declaring the statement lies and assuring the people that Austrian generals will continue to have sole command of their armies. The people may learn, the government is practicing a little camouflage, however.

Dr. von Kuehlmann declared Russia the cause of the war, disavowing the old claim that England was responsible. The latter evidently feared this might lighten Germany's hatred for England and promptly fired Von Kuehlmann, but the word has been spread among the mass of the Germans that the Kaiser cannot remove the effect of the German statesman's language.

IMAGINARY FEUDAL TENURES

The usually prosaic records of the Federal Court in the district of New York contain an indictment which reads like a romance. It is the charge against the German who was employed by the Kaiser to foment insurrection among the negroes of America. The agent was profiting in promises among them, being one of the negroes. In case the Kaiser wins the war, shall have several States to govern as they will. Giving away territory which belongs to others is the Kaiser's easiest task. When engaged at it he reminds one of that ancient episode when Satan took the Savior up into a high place and promised Him all the kingdoms of the world. And this at a time, as one informant confidentially has observed, when the poor devil didn't have the title to a single acre of land!

USE OF TRACTORS

Evidence of the growing popularity of tractors on corn-belt farms is shown by reports made by more than 600 tractor owners here out of 100 reported in their inventory in a tractor had proved profitable. These data were obtained in the summer and fall of 1917. In the spring of 1918 on representative Illinois farms by specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture in order to determine just what conditions justified the purchase of a tractor in that section. Experienced tractor owners who made reports stated the tractors will prove profitable on most corn belt farms of 150 acres or more, while in their opinion they should not be expected to do so on farms of much less than 130 acres. The report of the investigators, published as Farmers' Bulletin 1663, states that while the figures were obtained in only one State, they are a reliable barometer of the corn belt and that the prospective tractor purchaser may reasonably count upon equaling the average performances reported in the study.

GOOD ROADS SAVED FRANCE

France and Flanders—Good roads have twice saved France in the present war. Had it not been for the radiating road system maintained by the French government, the Germans would have won the battle of the Marne and reached Paris. The Germans had calculated on only three divisions being sent from Paris to stop the invasion. Instead, the excellent system of highways made it possible for five divisions to be sent to this front.

Again, shortly after the battle of Verdun started, the French railroad which was to furnish many of the supplies to the troops was destroyed. The French government, however, had a macadam road 32 feet wide on which four lines of traffic, two in either direction, were maintained day and night 14,000 motor-trucks carried men and equipment.

The traffic never stopped. When a hole was made in the road a man with a shovelful of rock slipped in between the lines of trucks and threw the rock into the hole, then jumped aside to let the trucks smooth the rock down.

SWITZERLAND'S PEACE MAY SOON BE OVER

Switzerland today is nearer being drawn into the vortex of war than at any time since 1914. With both the German army and the American army threatening to take the offensive in Alsace, the little republic surrounded by belligerent nations is in peril of invasion by the Germans, no matter which of the belligerents starts a drive. Invasion by a single regiment of German soldiers will mean war.

Aside from the diplomatic discussions with Berlin over the coal supply and other problems which have been threatening a break, the military situation holds menace for the Swiss. The country's peculiar situation between the warring nations.

This menace has existed since the French first began their drive into Alsace in 1914, but it has never been so perilous as now. Here is the reason.

Switzerland lies south of the Rhine for the greater portion of the boundary. There is one point, however, between Basel and Lorraine, where Swiss soil juts across the river into Germany. On this small strip of neutral territory may depend the fate of Switzerland in the war.

The American army begins an offensive in Alsace, as recent developments seem to promise, says the Galesburg Republican. Von Hindenburg will be forced to use every means at his command to prevent the southernmost flank of his line in Alsace from being turned and rolled back along the Rhine.

To do so he would be forced to make a stand along the Rhine as far south as the Swiss border. An attack by the Allies at this point, if delivered in sufficient force, would break the German line and threaten it with encirclement. The line would be extended along the Rhine thru Swiss territory.

Once Swiss territory was violated, Germany, no doubt, would occupy the whole of the northern part of the country and extend the battle line across Switzerland to the Italian border. Hitting it up with the Austro-Italian front.

RIPPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

Into Germany.
I hope before this war is done, and we've suppressed the frightful Hun, our men will march on German soil, and sundry tractors and land-clearing machines will be sent to the German people ought to know just now it feels to have a too shoot up their houses and their kinks and overturn the whole damned works. They should be given half a chance to see what deeds were wrought in France their cities made an aching void, their sauerkraut factories destroyed, they ought to see the bombshells burst among their fields of winter wheat and see the flash of snickerers beneath their waving pretzel trees. I would not advocate their plan of dealing death to dame and man, of slaying babes and babying priests, for allied soldiers are not beasts. But I would see our men in line somewhere along the storied Rhine, and have them take the country well, and show the Teuts that war is hell. Unless we bring it to their door, they'll soon forget the wars of yore and say it's what they're yearning for, when some mad ruler lusts for war. Oh let the Teutons have enough of all this blood and carnage stuff.

BANKERS ARRESTED AS ALIEN ENEMIES

NEW YORK, July 11.—Julius Pritzner, former president of the Trans-Atlantic Trust company and three other officers of the corporation were arrested today on charges of being alien enemies. When they were taken into custody it was disclosed that the bank was taken over several weeks ago and re-organized by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian.

Re-organization of the bank by Mr. Palmer was effected by the selection of New York City bankers to represent him as directors. The re-organized board then elected Z. S. Freeman to succeed Pritzner. H. Riemann Duval who had been chairman of the board was retained in that position. Pritzner held only ten shares of the stock.

The other men arrested were Andrew Gomary, Pritzner's private secretary, Guido von Steer, a former officer of the bank who is said to have once been an under-secretary in the Austro-Hungarian cabinet and Dr. Isadore Szekely, advertising manager of the bank. The prisoners after being interrogated were sent to widely separated jails for the night.

Pritzner in 1915 caused the arrest of Alexander and Hector Gondos newspaper publishers of Bridgeport, Conn., who were described as powers among the Hungarians in this country. Pritzner charged that the men had conspired to extort $2,000 from him.

The arrests were made on presidential warrants after investigation by the department of justice and the army and navy intelligence bureaus which have been under way since the United States entered the war. The men were held pending further inquiry.

It was explicitly stated that the arrests had nothing whatever to do with the taking over of the bank by the government. According to Mr. Palmer's representative here it had been found that 73 per cent of the bank's capital stock was owned by three Budapest, the Royal Hungarian Postal Savings bank, the Hungarian General Credit Bank and the Hungarian Bank of Discount.

This stock has come into Mr. Palmer's possession. The remaining stock is owned by Americans whose Americanism cannot be doubted.

NOVEL CASUALTY LIST IN GERMANY.

Amsterdam, July.—The first number of a novel casualty list has just appeared in Germany. It contains the numbers of watches found among the belongings of men killed in action who cannot be otherwise identified. Watches when sold or repaired are usually marked and numbered by the watchmaker and recorded, and the German military authorities, by circulating this new casualty list among watchmakers throughout Germany, hope to establish the identity of many dead soldiers.

WILL OF ORIGINAL ROBINSON CRUSOE SOLD

London, July.—The "last will" of Alexander Selkirk, the original of Robinson Crusoe, was sold at auction here this month for $300. The will begins: "Being now bound out on a voyage to sea, and calling to mind the perils and dangers of the seas and other uncertainties of this transitory life"

GERMAN SENTENCED FOR SMALL OFFENSE

COUNTY SAVINGS STAMPS QUOTA IS OVERSOLD

Actual Sales as Made Thru Post Office of the County Total $688,890—Other Sales Expected to Make a Million Dollar Figure—Morgan County Holds State Record.

Chicago, July 11.—Martin A. Ryerson, chairman of the war savings for Illinois announced today that Morgan county, is the first county in the State to purchase its 1918 allotment of war savings stamps.

Morgan county's quota was $688,000 while the county's actual cash sales to date aggregate $690,000.

This year is only about half over but the records at the Jacksonville postoffice, according to statement just made by Postmaster R. I. Dunlap, show that Morgan county has more than met its quota in the sale of War Savings stamps. The county allotment was $688,000 and the record of actual sales for which the postoffice has received the money is $688,890.

This record extends from December 1, 1917 to July 10, 1918. The increase of public interest in these sales is quite well illustrated by the statement that in December 768 stamps with a value of $3,840 were sold, while in June the number of stamps was 6,915 and their valuation $345,180. Jacksonville of course heads the list in the number of stamps sold, with 74,812 as the record and Franklin takes second place with the splendid total of 17,662 stamps, practically double the number sold thru any Morgan county office other than Jacksonville.

As will be remembered, a special campaign was recently held thru the school districts and extensive pledges were secured for the sale of stamps and certificates during the remaining months of the year. A thorough canvass of people was made and subscribers who signed cards made a statement with reference to the stamps already purchased and those which they agreed to purchase during the coming months. As indicated, the postoffice records now show the Morgan county quota has been more than met and the large sales yet to be made on the basis of the pledges already given will certainly mean that the county will go far over the top and will in all likelihood reach the million dollar mark, a prophecy made at the time of the special drive June 28.

TO EQUALIZE THE PRICE OF SUGAR

WASHINGTON, July 11.—To equalize the price of sugar to the consumer in the face of prospects for an increase due to a threatened shortage and to secure better distribution, President Wilson today created the sugar equalization board on recommendation of the Food Administration. The board will be incorporated at $5,000,000 the capital to be furnished by the president from his special war fund and will have authority to "fix" the price of sugar at a level to the consumer, production of beet factories that cannot under the reasonable price and other high cost sugar. This will be resold in the common lot at the stabilized price thus saving considerable to the consumer.

"It is expected" the announcement said, "that the price of sugar will need to increase the latter part of the year in view of the increased costs of overseas and internal railroad rates and in view of the higher costs of production and manufacture of sugar particularly in the increased cost of beets, bags, labor and transportation."

"By creation of this board however, it will be possible to work out a price for the public upwards of one cent a pound less than would be the case if the price of sugar were advanced to a price that will cover the high peaks in cost from all quarters."

The United States now virtually controls all sugar produced in the country as well as that imported thru the international sugar commission which organization allocates to the domestic industry.

TO INSURE CONTROL

Washington, July 11.—To insure complete control over raw wool supplies the government is to take over importation of wool from Argentina, Uruguay and South Africa after July 28.

There will not be sufficient wool the statement continued, to take care of both civilian and military needs unless some comprehensive plan is adopted for purchasing and importing the necessary supplies.

Control of the 1918 wool clip in this country has been taken over by the war trade board thru agreement with producers and the price fixed. After the government's requirements are met the remaining stock will be allocated by the board.

The trans-Siberian railway is under Czech-Slovak control from Tobolsk to the junction of the branches of the road which leads to South and North Russia to Krasnoyarsk, 1,300 miles east.

He is believed to have been the youngest American soldier thus far to give his life to his country.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The killing of Thomas Brennan, assistant cashier of the Cudry Packing Company, at Kansas City, April 2, was cleared up here today by the arrest and alleged confession of Richard Monahan, a 17 year old Jaekie at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

He was traced to the station by letter to his parents in Kansas City, it is said.

NO POSTPONEMENT OF JULY DRAFT CALL

Military Program Will Not Permit Delay in Filling Monthly Demand for Men.

Washington, July 11.—In response to a request for postponement of the July draft call in the northwest where wheat is ready for harvest, Provost Marshal General Crowder has informed the department of agriculture that the military program will not permit of delay in filling the monthly demand for drafted men.

Farmers and farm organizations of the northwest had appealed for aid. When Assistant Secretary Ousley took up the question with General Crowder he found that to relieve conditions in the spring wheat states as far as possible entrenchment in that section was ordered to begin July 2 instead of July 5 and 5 is elsewhere. More than this, it was stated, the needs of the army would not allow.

"Farmers in those sections which are confronted with the problem of harvesting wheat at a time when some of their help will be called to the colors should receive inspiration from the wheat growers of the Central States," said Mr. Ousley today. "Illinois and Kansas, two great wheat producing states, each registered 40,000 city men for farm work. From Ohio to Iowa, boys responded loyally and farmers found them willing and valuable helpers."

DEBATE MENACE OF ALIEN ENEMIES

Consider Changing of Names by Germans and Closing of German Banks in England.

London, July 11.—The menace of enemy aliens living freely in England was the text of newspaper articles during the past week. The subject was discussed in the house of commons today, the house having before it the report of the committee of six which Premier Lloyd George appointed July 8 to consider the question and make recommendations. The home secretary, Sir George Cave, whose department has charge of aliens, said that the principal recommendations of the committee will be carried into effect. The foremost is the winding up of German banks, which have been in the hands of receivers for more than three years and the closing of which has been demanded by the newspapers for more than a year past.

The secretary said that it would be made impossible for the banks to re-open for some years after the war. The fact is however, that any future cabinet may unmake any such policy framed by the present cabinet, if it wishes. Many Germans and persons of German descent have been changing their names during the war. The committee proposes that the changes be cancelled or that they be not permitted to take effect until six months after the war.

There are only a few thousands and aliens left unreturned in England. A considerable proportion of them are old people. Another fairly large contingent has some one serving in the British army and there is a sharp difference of opinion on the question of internment.

"Intern them all," is the watchword of the extremists, led by the Northcliffe papers. Other papers like the Westminster Gazette, the Daily News, the Daily Chronicle and the Manchester Guardian, liken the present movement to "witch baiting" and the historic "no popery" agitation. Premier Lloyd George said the debate had shown that the house generally had accepted the propositions laid by the home secretary.

FRUIT SIRUPS NEED NO SUGAR

Use the Concentrated Sweetness of the Fruits in Place of Sugar in Cooking.

Washington, July 11.—Sweet fruit sirups require no sugar in the making and may be used in place of sugar in several ways in general cooking, according to specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Apple sirup is especially good for cakes, hot biscuits, candies and seasonings.

To make it add 5 ounces of powder calcium carbonate to 7 gallons of apple cider. Powdered calcium carbonate (carbonate of lime) or, to give it its common name, precipitated chalk, is low-priced and harmless. Boil the mixture in a kettle or vat vigorously for five minutes. Pour the liquid into vessels, preferably glass jars or pitchers; allow to stand six or eight hours, or until perfectly clear. Pour the clear liquid into a preserving bottle. Do not allow sediment at bottom to enter. Add to the clear liquid one level teaspoonful of lime carbonate and stir thoroly. The process is completed by boiling down rapidly to a clear liquid. Use density gauge or candy thermometer and bring the emperature up to 220 degrees F. If a thermometer is not available, boil until bulk is reduced to one-seventh of the original volume. To determine whether the sirup is cooked enough test as for candy—by pouring a little into cold water. If boiled enough it should have the consistency of maple sirup. It should not be cooked long enough to harden like candy when tested.

When the test shows that the sirup has been cooked enough, pour it into fruit jars, pitchers, etc., and allow it to cool slowly. Slow cooling is important, as otherwise the suspended matter will not settle properly and the sirup will be cloudy.

A good way to insure cooling is to stand the vessels, full of sirup, in a bucket or a wash boiler of hot water or to place them in a fireless cooker. The white sediment which settles out during cooking is called "malate of lime" and is a harmless compound of lime with the natural acid of the apple. When the sirup is cooled, it should be stored in fruit jars, bottles, or jugs and corks. Place the rubber and cap or cotton stopper or cork in position and tighten. Place the container in boiling hot water and sterilize for the length of time given below for the particular type or outfit used:

USE AFTER ALL

Washington, July 1.—The war has introduced new maladies. But it has also introduced new cures. There have been recorded during the conflict many cases of deafness and speechlessness being cured by accidental means, such as a sudden noise or an unexpected visitor, or a startling question, and in one case at least a midnight fall out of bed. Falling downstairs has also been known to cure a man of shell-shock.

If a doctor were to prescribe smoking with the lighted end of the cigarette in the month, the patient would probably consider him a lunatic. This operation, nevertheless, was completely successful in curing one case of shell-shock, and in giving the sufferer back his speech.

Soldiers have been more strangely cured from shell-shock than from any other malady. Music has cured numerous victims, and temporary dumbness has been cured by over-excitement in a game of cards. The shock of being photographed by flashlight and the agony of having a tooth pulled out cured two men who believed they had forfeited their speech forever.

MOVIES POPULAR IN JERUSALEM

London, June 3.—The moving picture has acquired a sudden and enormous popularity in Jerusalem, particularly among the native population, according to letters from soldiers there. It is impossible to accommodate the crowds that try to attend the theatres. People almost fought to get into a big theatre when the film depicting the occupation of Beersheba was shown.

A NEW METHOD OF PROFITEERING

New York, July.—A new method of profiteering in Germany was disclosed in the Reichstag recently when Socialist Deputy Meerfeld, declared that private contractors were making millions from government contracts for the manufacture of door knobs to replace the metal knobs seized under the recent order of the German government.

Miss Hattie Boffett was a Jacksonville visitor Tuesday.

"With the Colors"

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

Wishes From Rochester School.

The following letter was written to Miss Vivian Vieira of 738 E. North Street, this city, by her cousin, Fred E. Vieira, who is a student at the School of Aerial Photography at Rochester, N. Y., July 5, 1918.

Dear Cousin Vivian: We have very hard studies here but we are doing all right with our lessons, hard as they are. I have passed two weeks' examinations, (we have an examination on Friday of each week.) The school of aerial photography is certainly a fine line of study. There are about 1,000 students enrolled and they are all very much interested in the work. Hundreds of graduates have already been sent out from the school into various parts of the country. Some are sent to Cornell, some to Washington and some to Columbus and various universities to study for a still higher position in the U. S. army. Aerial photography is a great and important branch of the service. We have here the greatest advantage anyone could desire in the work. The people here are deeply interested in the school. A class of 160 graduates at the end of every five weeks, then 100 more are sent to the school to take the place of those who graduated. The students are nicely treated by all whom they meet and they are highly respected by everyone. The people here say there is nothing that appeals to them so much as the soldiers of the School of Aerial Photography. Aerial photography is the one agency by which can be obtained certain information essential in winning the war as the aeroplane has the advantage over all other war operations.

All the students here have very good food and plenty of it. We have a dining hall which seats 1,000. The Y. M. C. A. is playing a great part in the army. A great many families invite the students to their homes to spend a Sunday. They give us long rides for pleasure trips and we are all appreciative of their kind hospitality.

Fourth of July we had a very large aviation parade from the school to the Exposition park, which is a very beautiful place. There were over 18,000 people to witness the parade, the occasion being one of great interest to the public. Two bands led the parade and furnished plenty of fine music. The program included a number of excellent speakers, all of whom made stirring patriotic addresses.

I will close for this time, as I have no more news at present. Your loving cousin, Fred E. Vieira.

Letter From France.

The following letter has been received by Mrs. H. A. Molohon, from her son, Corporal Albin Molohon, who is now in France. France, June 17, 1918.

Dear Folks:—How's all in the old town? This is certainly a busy country, haven't had time to write excepting the first week and then the three letters that I wrote wouldn't pass censorship. Had an excellent trip over with the exception of the last day and it was too exciting for comfort, living conditions on the front were of the best and as far as food couldn't eat all that they handed out. At present we are quartered in a French residence, that has been abandoned, only about fifty in a big three-story house. The only hardship so far is the sleeping on the floor. Hopefully I had a nice time in Louisiana, Mo. I first enlisted.

When passing thru the country one hardly realizes that there is a war within a hundred miles, it's so peaceful. The country is the most beautiful that I have ever seen. If the farmers in the "States" would pattern after the French people in their system of intensive farming there would be enough food raised to feed the world for the next five hundred years, every available square inch being used.

I was not sure that telegram that I sent from Camp Upton was acceptable but I took a chance on it. If the cost was too much just deduct it from my next allotment, by the way have you received another allotment yet? Has the rest of the insurance premiums arrived yet?

Our mail hasn't caught up with us yet but probably will in the next few days. Suppose you have been writing right along. At least I hope so. This membership proposition is a mighty queer thing. One officer says that you can write one thing and another says something else. But I am leaving some things out for fear they won't get by. But have patience this war won't last forever from the present look. I think and then you all will hear the whole thing.

Well it's about time to get to work, so will close for this time being. Am feeling so fine that I don't know what to do with myself.

Love to all, Corp. Albin D. Molohon, 108th Train Hq. and M. P. American Expeditionary Forces.

MORGAN CO. MARINE INJURED IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harney of Woodson Have Cablegram Their Son Was Wounded in Action Overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harney of Woodson received a cablegram Wednesday evening stating that their son George Amos Harney had been seriously wounded with the Marines, Somewhere in France. His name is contained in the casualty list given out by the War department yesterday. The young man enlisted with the Marines in Springfield on June 7, 1917 and from there was sent to St. Louis and then to Paris Island, Virginia. Later he was assigned to Camp Quantico from where he sailed to France arriving there about October 27. The last letter that had been received from him was three weeks ago in which he stated that he had just returned from the front line trenches and had been there for three or four nights.

Since his arrival in France he stated that he has been privileged to see a great deal of the country, visiting many places of interest.

The cablegram did not state the extent of the injuries and Mr. and Mrs. Harney are expecting to have some word from him in the near future.

SCHOOL LAW POINTS.

July is the month set apart by the statute for the consideration of the amounts to be levied for educational and building purposes.

Such amounts must be certified and returned to the township treasurer on or before the first Tuesday in August, annually. The township treasurer shall return the certificate to the county clerk on or before the second Monday in August.

A failure by the school board to file the certificate, or of the treasurer to return it to the county clerk in the time required, will not vitiate the assessment.

The salaries of teachers and janitors, the cost of fuel and all other necessary incidental expenses must be paid from the educational fund.

The cost of all improvements, repairs or grounds to be paid from the building fund.

The cost of tuition must be paid from the educational fund.

The cost of insurance must be paid from the building fund.

The compensation of the clerk must be paid from that part of the educational fund not otherwise appropriated.

The cost of all special assessments must be paid from the building fund.

The cost of libraries and apparatus must be paid from the educational fund, after provision has been made for the payment of all necessary school expenses.

The principal of and interest upon any outstanding bonded indebtedness must be paid from the building fund.

The cost of establishing, maintaining and operating playgrounds must be paid from the building fund. Act of June 26, 1917.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that taxes levied for one purpose may not be legally used for that of the other.

The educational and building funds must be kept separate, not only by the township treasurer on his books, but in the payment of the bills of the district. People vs. Hassler, 262-133, and authorities there cited.

JOHN W. DALY VISITOR HERE

John W. Daly is here from New York City for a brief visit with his family at the home of Mrs. John R. Robertson on West Lafayette avenue. Mr. Daly who is passenger traffic manager of the New York Central lines west of Buffalo has been in conference with regional railroad committees in New York. As mentioned recently because of his present war time connection with railroad activities it has been found advisable for Mr. Daly to remove his offices from Chicago to New York City.

ARRIVES OVERSEAS.

Robert W. Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burdick of 309 Woodland Place, has arrived safely overseas, according to word received by his parents yesterday.

Miss Estelle Schofield and Marceline Cowgill arrived home last evening from an extended visit with friends in Greenfield.

NEW SCHOOL SITE PLAN BRINGS DISCUSSION

ACADEMY SUGGESTION IS NOT POPULAR WITH BOARD

Architect's Blue Print Brings Quick Decision That Expense Would Be Large in Making Building Available for High School Purposes—Cost of Erecting School Building Now or After the War Is Matter of Guess Work.

The suggestion that the Jacksonville Female Academy building might be purchased by the board of education and remodeled into a temporary high school building seems to have met a quick and decisive end. But really the project was one of sufficient worth to merit at least an obituary.

The suggestion met with the favorable opinion of a considerable number of citizens who had the feeling that if the academy building could be purchased at a reasonable figure, that the best high school site in the city would come under the control of the board of education. This idea of the academy lot being ideal for high school purposes did not pretend to take into consideration all related facts.

The suggestion was made with the knowledge that the site was large and beautiful, is centrally located and also that various other considerations must be taken into account. It is realized that it would not be a feasible plan unless a thorough investigation would show that if the present building, somewhat remodeled, were used for a period of years and later another building erected and the total expenditure did not exceed that proposed for a building on the old site and the acquisition of some contiguous property—that only then would the suggestion be fully worth while.

Architect Made Blue Print

Recently a committee from the board of education by authority of the board had J. K. C. Pierson as architect make some examination of the academy building and draw a blue print of public changes in the interior. Mr. Pierson at a meeting of the board Monday night presented this blue print showing that 15 recitation rooms could be provided, seating anywhere from 18 to 42 pupils each; that two study halls would each have a seating capacity of 78 and that the present assembly room has a seating capacity of about 200. The suggested study hall rooms would be in such a position that they could be extended just as much as the board deemed advisable by additions to the building.

There are certain specifications issued by the department of public instruction with reference to heating, ventilation, lighting, seating, water supply, toilets, etc., which must be followed in school construction if the school is to share in the state distributive fund.

There are also some state laws with reference to buildings covering the matter of certain types of construction. It was Mr. Pierson's opinion that if these specifications of the department of public instruction and the state laws which are designed for new buildings must be followed strictly with reference to a remodeled building, then that the expense would be very heavy, such as would practically condemn the project in the beginning.

The architect, of course, could give no definite idea as to the probable cost of changes and additions unless he had facts as to whether or not any latitude would be given in this matter of following the suggested specifications and school building requirements.

Board Majority Opposed to Plan

At the board meeting it developed that a majority of the board felt that the architect's blue print made it clear that there would not be enough space in the building to take care of the high school needs even for a limited period. They felt that the project was not worthy of any further investigation and that there would be no advantage in going to the expense of securing an opinion from the department of public instruction and then having the architect make specifications and estimates of expense.

The trustees of Illinois college have in no manner placed the academy building on the market and the only statement from the board was that given recently by Dr. Rammelkamp in which it was made quite clear that the board had not suggested the sale of the property, had not been approached for a sale, moreover, would have to give the proposal considerable thought before they would be willing to express a willingness to sell at any price.

The business men to whom the suggestion carried a special appeal took into consideration the thought that building operations now must necessarily be conducted at very heavy expense by comparison with the pre-war period. As a result it does not seem unlikely that if a building costing $200,000 or more is contracted for this year, that in a few years hence, according to the then prices of materials and labor, that the building will not be worth anything near its original cost. This idea is of course based upon the belief that after the war that prices for labor and materials will be on a much lower level than now obtains.

Guessing On War Duration

This is not an unreasonable view in the light of history and from a general study of world conditions. There are, however, many people who do not take this view and who believe that prices will continue high after the war, even tho' the tremendous demand for material which the warring of war means, will have ended. Some people think that the war will be over in a few months, some consider one or two years as the probable length and then there are people who suggest a war period running for ten or twenty years.

One man has just as much right to guess as another and one guess is just as good as another.

It is common knowledge that the board of education has on hand about $95,000 to $100,000 cash money collected from insurance on the high school building, that a bond issue of $100,000 has been authorized and that the board contemplates the raising of the necessary additional fund by a building tax. There has been the understanding that a piece of property adjacent to the David Prince building would probably be acquired for the installation of a heating plant, one to supply the David Prince building and also the new high school building. Based upon the price of this property, to acquire all the residence property between the school site and Prairie street and from State to Jordan streets would mean an expenditure of about $50,000.

Comparing Possible Costs.

There has been no suggestion that this would be done immediately but the idea has been that in the course of years this property might be acquired, the adjacent streets closed and thus a splendid addition of ground be secured for the two buildings. With the thought of the cost of these buildings and the probable present time expenditure for a new high school building, the idea of securing the academy building, remodeling it for temporary use and then utilizing the site, gave the idea of a more desirable school site without a larger expenditure of money. It was even granted that in the course of a few years the old building might be entirely demolished and a new one take its place.

This latter building plan carried with it also the appeal that the postponing of any building work at the present time which is detrimental to public interest, can be accounted a matter of patriotism. Those who have looked with favor upon the academy site proposal realize quite well that detailed specifications and estimates for a remodeling of the building might at once indicate that such a remodeling was not practical or feasible, but such plans and specifications have not been made.

Anyhow, the project seems to have passed away and been interred, and possibly there is not enough of merit in it to make disinterment worth while. Then too, everybody will agree on one proposition—that there should be no substantial over general high school plans.

HARRY SEYMOUR HURT BY FALLING BRICK

Harry Seymour of Nortonville suffered a serious injury Thursday about noon when while working in Franklin at the home of John Oxley he was struck in the back of the head and neck by falling brick and rendered unconscious.

Seymour was assisting in tearing down the Oxley residence, the dwelling having been badly crushed in a storm some months ago. He was tearing up the dining room flooring when a part of the chimney which was standing fell, striking him with great force in the back of the head. Men who were working with him went to his assistance and when first picked up they thought that he had been killed. He was unconscious for some little time and Dr. J. B. Perkins of Franklin who was called thought it advisable to have the unfortunate man brought to this city when an X-ray examination could be made. This was done but Dr. H. A. Chapin reported that the skull was not fractured and that the patient should improve with quiet and rest.

Accordingly he was taken to his home in Nortonville last evening and late reports are that he was resting comfortably.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Alex Whitley, letters of administration were ordered to issue to Elener Whitley and bond fixed in the sum of $1,790.

In the estate of Phil Hackman the inventory was approved. This document shows that Mr. Hackman left an estate valued at from $55,000 to $60,000. He had one tract of 89 acres of land which is worth approximately $200 an acre and the valuation fixed on another farm of 156 acres that he owned was $28,800. He owned several pieces of city property in addition to some stocks.

NEW GUNS FOR STATE MILITIA.

Co. C, state militia, recently shipped back to the office of the adjutant general the Springfield rifles which have been used since the company was organized. The guns will be sent instead of those rifles of others of modern type. They are said to be rifles which were manufactured for Russia by a well known American firm. Before they were delivered the money to Russia the rifles were seized and a part of the supply is being sent to the various states for the use of militia companies.

MARIE CONSTANT WINS AT AURORA.

That the present racing season promises to be a successful one for Marie Constant in the hands of Clark L. Green is evidenced by word received in Jacksonville Thursday evening. The little mare won the 2:14 trot in straight heats at Aurora, upsetting the dope sheet in proper order and taking the bookmakers into camp at long odds. There were fourteen starters in the race, the most of the field of high class quality.

C. B. RANDELL DIED FROM HEART DISEASE

Death of Well Known Galesburg Man Was Sudden—Father of L. F. Randall of This City.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the death of C. B. Randall of Galesburg, father of Fred Randall of this city. The Galesburg Republican-Register gives the following facts about Mr. Randall, who has been a well known citizen of Galesburg for many years. He was found dead in bed as the result of heart disease. The paper mentioned said:

"C. B. Randall, 149 Indiana avenue, one of the best known and most liked residents of Galesburg, was found dead in his bed this morning at 6:45. Death was caused by heart failure sometime during the night between midnight and morning.

He seemed to be alright about 11:30 when his daughter Fay, who plays at the Colonial theatre, returned home. She talked to her father shortly before midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whalen have made their home with Mr. Randall since the death of his wife in January. Mrs. Whalen called Mr. Randall about six o'clock for breakfast. He did not answer and after calling him several times, she went to his room, and found him dead.

Mr. Randall will be much missed in this community as he was a friend to everyone and was always willing and ready to do favors for those who asked them.

Charles Bailey Randall was born in Orange township near Delong, Sept. 12, 1850. He was the youngest of a large family and is the last to pass away.

He spent his boyhood near Delong where he received his education. He was first married to Vina Anstine. To this union four children were born. They are: Fred Randall, Jacksonville, Ill.; Mrs. Berdie Stone, Detroit, Mich.; Dora Edwards, Revillo, S. D.; and Mrs. Bessie Frell, Italy.

Several years after the death of his first wife, Mr. Randall was married in Galesburg on Feb. 21, 1894, to Mrs. Irene McNaughton. She died Jan. 1, 1918. One child, Fay at home, survives.

Mr. Randall has always been engaged here in the contracting business and was the founder of East Galesburg, starting the village when the brick yard opened for business. He has made his home in Galesburg for over 25 years.

Since the death of his wife, he has been troubled with heart trouble, but during the last month has felt better. He has been superintending the work of tearing down the old brick yard during the past several weeks. He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

JACKSONVILLE SOLDIERS MEET IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Andrews received a letter Thursday morning from their son Corporal La Fount Andrews who is now in active service in France. He is stationed in the Amiens sector and states that the day of writing the letter that they had just been given their new gas masks and were trying to get used to wearing them. The men he said had just been given English rifles instead of the ones they took with them from this country. While still behind the lines, he thinks that in a few days, as soon as they become accustomed to their gas masks that they will be sent to the front.

On one of his furloughs he visited one of the largest cities with his chum and there met Frank Merrill whom he had not seen for a year, since he joined Company B here last year. Also stationed in Amiens is Paul Spink another of the Company B boys.

The company with which Corporal Andrews is connected is housed in a large beautiful French villa. This house was built in 1938 and has lately been remodeled and papered and now has all the conveniences of a modern home. It is situated about four miles from the front lines.

PACKERS VIGOROUS IN THEIR DENIALS

Declare Federal Trade Commission Report Is Not Fair to Them—Government Has Access to All Records.

The five Chicago packers attacked by the Federal Trade commission in a recent report have carried statements in the papers all over the country denying the charges made. The packers have also issued a statement in which the Federal Trade Commission is vigorously arraigned for an alleged misrepresentation of them, for political purposes. In their statement the packers said:

"The charge of profiteering made against the American packers by the Federal Trade Commission, is not true. The fact that the Commission alleges monopoly does not bear out the charge.

"The importance that should attach to the Commission's charges is best indicated by the tendency of its members to gain political preferment by attacks on big business. It is not surprising that the Commission's charges have been made with more regard for their effect upon the public than for the facts in the case.

"The Commission says that because the Packers' profits are large they are unquestionably profiteering.

"Profits and Big Business. 'Profits are large or small only when considered in relation to the size of the business on which they are earned. In the case of five leading packers, the profits for the past three years amounted to $140,000,000 on sales aggregating nearly five billion dollars. That means less than three cents on the dollar. It is a smaller rate of profit than is enjoyed by any other large business in the world.

"It is a fact which the Commission cannot deny and which government accountants can verify, that packers' profits represent approximately a quarter of a cent per pound of product. In other words, when the consumer buys a pound of meat from his retail dealer, a quarter part of one cent out of the amount which he pays is profit for the packers.

"Yet by a camouflage of figures the Commission would have the public believe that the packers are preying upon the public. No sane man will contend that a quarter of a cent a pound is an unreasonable profit on a perishable product which has to be both manufactured and distributed by the firm which gets the quarter cent return.

"Further it is a fact seemingly ignored by the Federal Trade Commission, that since last November, packers have been limited as to profits. They are not permitted to earn in excess of two and a half cents of each dollar's worth of business transacted and the total profit on the actual investment in meat food lines must not exceed nine per cent per annum.

"Government representatives have full access to the packers' books and are in position to know that the profits have not been greater than prescribed by the regulations.

No Monopoly. "The charge of monopoly is as far from substantiation by the facts as is the charge of profiteering. It is true that the packers have many interests in common, but that is true in every line of industry, and it does not follow that their mutual interests make the competition between them any less keen. The Commission does not follow up its charges of monopoly with facts and there are none that warrant the charge.

"The truth about the packing industry is that it prospers on the smallest margin of profit of any business of national consequence and that because of its efficiency and organization, it has served well both the producer and the consumer in peace times and now that the nation is at war, it has been able to meet the unusual demands made upon it better than has any other pre-war industry.

"These facts will be demonstrated by any impartial investigation and they are submitted to offset the prejudice which might arise from the unjust charges and misstatements of the Federal Trade Commission."

HEAVY WHEAT ON MASTERS FARM

George B. Kendall, county agent, was in the vicinity of Woodson and Murrayville yesterday. He visited the elevator at these towns and also at Clement Station on the Altou off. Mr. Kendall also visited a number of farms and spent an hour or more on the A. M. Masters farm where wheat threshing is now in progress. On this farm Mr. Masters has 52 acres of wheat which is yielding better than 40 bushels to the acre. The crop was planted following a clover crop which had been grown after an application of phosphate. This is one of the best fields of wheat in Morgan county that has been received this year.

TWO NURSES WILL BEGIN RED CROSS WORK

Miss Rose Whipp and Miss Ella Williams, to Leave Jacksonville State Hospital—Governor Lowden Shows Need for Institution Workers.

Miss Rose Whipp is soon to leave Jacksonville to report for Red Cross service abroad. Miss Whipp who is a niece of Col. Frank D. Whipp of the state department of public welfare, has for several years been chief of nurses at Jacksonville. Her efficiency and devotion to her work have resulted in a record.

Miss Ella Williams, head nurse in the hydrotherapy department at the hospital, has also received orders to report. The many friends of these two young women will send best wishes along with them in the important work in which they are to now engage. The going of Miss Whipp and Miss Williams gives additional emphasis to the recent appeal which Gov. Lowden made recently for people to help at the state institutions. The governor evidently realized that a great many of the nurses and other workers in state hospitals and institutions must and should enter the army service. He also sought to point out the fact that there are duties a home which must have attention. The governor said:

State Institution Conditions. "The State Institutions are confronted by a serious situation. A large number of the most expert in the various departments of the State Government have been requested for service in Washington. Many others have enlisted in the Army, and still others have been tempted by high wages to enter private industries. We have been glad in most instances to make this large contribution to the winning of the war. We realize that many branches of the State service must be inevitably crippled during the war.

There is one place, however, at which our losses on account of the war have reached the danger point. This is in the conduct of our State Institutions. Other departments of the state government must content themselves with doing the best they can, no matter how many men they lose to the Government. The Departments of Public Welfare and Public Health, however, are in every essential a part of any sound war program.

"Our people have become so engrossed in the war that they are forgetting the obligations of service at home.

"Willing and anxious, as we all are to do everything that is possible to help win the war, we must remember that the State Institutions may not be closed, and our people must realize that service in them is essential service, just as necessary and just as patriotic as service at the front.

"It will avail us nothing to win battles for humanity abroad unless we maintain the obligations to humanity which these institutions impose on us at home."

Must Keep Work Going. "The hospitals for the insane, the correctional institutions and the homes for other defective and helpless members of society must be kept going. To keep them going, we must have men and women to do the work.

"It must be made known that those who enter the institutions service of the State will serve their country precisely as well and as usefully as they are enlisted in the Army, the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A.

In some instances, our entire need, with the exception of the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent have gone into the service of the Government, with the result that we have had to take whatever untrained help we could get.

"The Nursing Service is as badly depleted as the medical service. Below the grade of Chief Nurse have gone. Young women are needed to act as attendants, clean, safe and profitable positions of essential service.

"The situation is alarming and we must have the co-operation of the public if we are to keep the institutions going."

STOCKS AND FEEDERS SHOW A SMALL ADVANCE, BUT ARE SELLING FROM 50c TO 75c PER CWT. LOWER THAN TWO WEEKS AGO.

Butcher stock market today shows an advance of 50¢ to 75¢ for the week. Choice cows 50¢ higher, weighty cows are in good demand at about 50¢ higher than last Wednesday. Canners and cutters 25¢ to 40¢ higher. Choice vealers $17.00. Sorts very heavy on the weighty grassy kinds. Bulls 25¢ higher.

Hogs—17,000 today and the market generally ruled 15¢ higher. For a while on account of the big receipts at the river markets, it looked as if the packers would fight the advance but they eventually came in and the result was a good finish. Sheep and Lambs—We have had very light receipts of sheep and lambs this week, and a good healthy market. ### DISCUSS LIVESTOCK MARKET CONDITIONS

Alexander, Conover & Martin, Chicago Commission People, Give Facts About Cattle Receipts for Week—Light Receipts of Sheep and Lambs.

In a recent letter discussing the conditions of the livestock market the Chicago commission firm of Alexander, Conover & Martin state that receipts of cattle for the week thus far show a falling off by comparison with the same time a week ago, and that the market is strong and generally higher than the close of last week, especially on the cheaper grades of cattle. The letter follows:

Receipts of cattle so far for the week show a falling off of about 6,500 compared with the same time a week ago, and about 9,000 more than a year ago at the same time. Six western markets show a gain of about 2,000, and about 7,000 less at seven markets than a year ago. A good, strong, healthy market and generally higher than the close of last week, especially on the cheaper grades of cattle selling from $12 to $15.50, with the top at $18.10, 10¢ higher than any previous sale. Outlook good for the future.
